

Emergency Management Agency
City Hall, 562 Main Street
Melrose, MA 02176

Melrose Control Center
Office - (781) 979-4111
Fax - (781) 979-4211

Minutes
FULL MEMBERSHIP MEETING

Mystic Region REPC

TUESDAY, May 15, 2012

9:30 AM – 12:30 PM

General Electric Plant – Lynn, MA

Welcome & brief overview from Captain Tustin. Meeting called to order. 75 Attendees.

Ed Kelly – Treasury – status quo $$

Tier II reports – next year – any paper submissions will be returned. Electronic version only

GE presentation - Dan Montanaro, EHS Site Manager Welcome from GE

Brad Bittenbender, Sr. Safety Specialist gave overview of the GE site and its Hazmat response plans.

Training Report – Mark Rudolph

MEMA Earthquake presentation by Dr John Ebel Boston College

Dr. John Ebel is from Boston College and is the Director of the Weston Observatory of Boston College. His presentation is geared towards the very real possibility of earthquakes in New England and what our past experiences have been, as well as some of the major dangers that are specifically related to New England.

MMTA – Mass Motor Transportation Association www.mass-trucking.org

Boston Hazardous Materials Ban Proposal has been approved by the Mass DOT.

Anne Lynch detailed genesis and current status of this issue.

New regulations effective June 13, 2012 attached.

MASS Medical – Eunice Shriver Center – Nancy Shea – working with Homeland Security Grant to educate 1st responders about the disabled population and their special needs.

Will work and train any community that requests assistance. Information sheet attached.

There is no cost to the community – this is fully funded.

MEMA Equipment Presentation

EOC Trailer and Communication Trailer were on display in the parking lot. Each vehicle's MEMA representative gave a brief presentation of their capabilities and functions. These trailers are available to our communities if requested for use in emergencies, pre-planned events, and disasters.